SENATE BILL NO. 346.

Executive Office,
State of Texas.

Austin, Texas, March 24, 1911.

To the Secretary of State:

I transmit herewith for file in the office of Secretary of State, as required by Section 14, Article 4, of the Constitution, Senate bill No. 346, the same being,

"An Act creating the Garland Independent School District in Dallas county, Texas, so as to include the territory situated within the bounds of the town of Garland in the county of Dallas and State of Texas, and other lands and territory adjacent thereto, providing for the election of a board of trustees to manage and control the public free schools within said district and for the continuance in office of certain trustees until said election, investing the said district with all the powers, rights and duties of independent school districts conferred by general laws upon incorporations incorporated for free school purposes only, empowering the said district to take over all school money belonging to and all free school properties situated within said district, imposing upon it the discharge of the obligations of said territory for school purposes, prescribing limitations, and declaring an emergency,"

Without approval, for the reason that on yesterday I approved House bill No. 587, which creates the Garland Independent School District, and is in all respects identical with Senate bill No. 346, which is filed herewith without approval.

It appears that both Houses originated and passed the same bill.

Yours truly,

O. B. COLQUITT,
Governor.
